

*Individuals with a high celiac disease probability include:

- Signs/symptoms of malabsorption such as significant chronic diarrhea or steatorrhea and weight loss.
- Moderate/high risk factors** with consistent gastrointestinal or extraintestinal signs/symptoms suggestive of celiac disease.

**Moderate/high risk factors include:

- First- and second-degree family members with confirmed celiac disease
- Type 1 diabetes
- Autoimmune thyroiditis
- Down and Turner syndromes
- Pulmonary hemosiderosis

